

PLC Programmer

PERMANENT POSITION	POSITION TO FILL 1	Code ME23-08
Work location is in Nunavik	DEADLINE TO APPLY DECEMBER 26, 2023
The normal work schedule is on a rotation of 4 weeks paid i.e., 2 weeks worked (77 hours per week, 7 days a week) followed by 2 weeks paid to rest.

PRIVILEGES & BENEFITS

- A competitive salary including bonuses and a comprehensive range of benefits (insurance, generous retirement plan, telemedical consultations, PAEF, etc.).
- Learning opportunities and the possibility of coaching.
- A friendly, committed, and collaborative work environment.

FUTURE CHALLENGES

Reporting to the Electrical Superintendent, the PLC Programmer is responsible for:

- Making modifications to various process control programs.
- Resolving any programming-related problems.
- Testing programming interfaces, drive systems, and motor starters.
- Experimenting with Ethernet communication, serial communication.
- Meet company health and safety requirements and recommendations.
- Performing other related tasks associated with this position.

PROFILE REQUIRED

- Hold a bachelor's degree in automated production, an electrical engineering technology diploma, or any other related discipline.
- Have a minimum of 2 years of experience in programming.
- Possess knowledge of Schneider programs (Vijeo Designer, Citect, Unity Pro, Somove).
- Have experience in troubleshooting and problem-solving.
- Possess a valid Class 5 driver's license.

NICE TO HAVE

- Good knowledge of MS Office software suite.
- Bilingualism (functional French and English).

SKILLS SOUGHT

- Working within a diverse and multicultural team.
- Demonstrating autonomy, dynamism, positivity, respect, teamwork, and adaptability.
- Ability to work under pressure while maintaining relationships with others.