Territorial Driver's Licence

A. What is a territorial licence?

The territorial licence authorises its holder to drive a road vehicle or a combination of road vehicles on roads that are not connected to the provincial road network. Holders of the territorial licence are subject to the same laws governing licence suspensions, fines and criminal code offenses as apply to other Quebec drivers.

Notes:

- 1) You cannot apply for a territorial licence and for a higher licence at the same time;
- 2) The territorial licence must be renewed every year (84.69$ + demerits if applicable);
 - a. The Société de l'Assurance Automobile du Québec (SAAQ) sends a yearly reminder on the month of your birthday, informing you of the total cost of renewal.

B. Requirements:

- Be at least 16 years of age for a Class 5, 6A, 6C or 8 licence (or be at least 14 years of age for 6D);
